Re: FIRST IJF GRAND SLAM

The first IJF Grand Slam of the year took place in Paris over the weekend, at one of the most traditional venues of the sport – the Palais Omnisport Bercy.

The competition has been held since 1971 (under the name of Tournoi de Paris) and in its 36th edition, the event will receive over 400 athletes from around 50 countries and representing all five continents, showing once again how democratic judo as sport .

The African Continent was represented by 10 African countries and 39 competitors. Tunisia and Algeria were the continents two medal winning countries.
